Helpless As a Baby.

Valley Heights Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from this place, says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and I saw it was helping me, at once. Now I work all day." As a tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found, for fifty years, that would take the place of Cardui. It will surely do you good. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients, and has a specific, curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle today. At your druggist's—Advertisement.

On Losing Your Temper.

There is an old saying to the effect that the Jesuits are wise; they never lose their temper. This adage we submit for the consideration of those choleric people, male and female, who cannot comprehend that a combination of sound and fury may as often contain elements of low comedy as of strength. He lost his temper is frequently another way of saying he lost his fight.—Baltimore Sun.

The day of harsh physic is gone. People want mild, easy laxatives. Doan's Regulets have satisfied thousands. 25c at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

She Changed Her Mind.

"I think they're an excellent thing," said a well-known churchwoman, in speaking of basenall pools. Her remark fairly took several persons with whom she was talking off their feet, and it was several seconds before the others had recovered from their surprise sufficiently to answer. Finally one of them asked her if she knew that the pools were practically nothing more than the old lotteries that were suppressed years ago. "Oh," she said, flushing, "is that what they are? I thought they were something like the swimming pools."—Worcester Post.

For croup or sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.—Advertisement.

The True Funeral Director.

The true funeral director is serious, but not gloomy; dignified, but not morose; gentle, but not fawning; self-possessed, but not self-conscious; quietly masterful but not bossy; alert, but not fussy; watchful, but not nervous; pathetic, but not lachrymose; a kindly, unassuming master of ceremonies.—From a paper read at a convention in San Francisco.

Sciatica's Piercing Pain.

To kill the nerve pains of Sciatica you can always depend on Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the seat of pain and brings ease as soon as it is applied. A great comfort too with Sloan's is that no rubbing is required. Sloan's Liniment is invaluable for stopping muscular or nerve pain of any kind. Try it at once if you suffer with Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sore Throat, Pain in Chest, Sprains, Bruises, etc. It is excellent for Neuralgia and Headache. 25c, at all Druggists.—Advertisement.

Optimistic Thought.

True greatness is that which produces the greatest amount of happiness.

Philosopher Talks.

"People talk tells all they know," said Uncle Eben, "don't generally seem to find out much worth telling."

Cold Light.

Rare atmospheric gas known as neon, which was first isolated in 1898 by fractional distillation of liquid air, is now used successfully in electric lighting. If a mild electric current passes through a tube that contains a minute quantity of neon, it produces a golden light that is soft and agreeable to the eyes, and makes the object it illumines stand out with remarkable sharpness. The neon tubes require less current than the mercury-vapor lamp and give out less heat than any other form of electric light. Moreover, the electric current disintegrates the new gas very slowly; the tubes will produce light for from eight hundred to a thousand hours without being renewed. Recently four neon tubes, nearly 120 feet long, were successfully used to light an exhibit at the Grand Palais in Paris.

Eczema spreads rapidly; itching almost drives you mad. For quick relief, Doan's Ointment is well recommended. 50c at all stores.—Advertisement.

Degeneration.

Smuggles—"Say, Jiggs. Who are those three gentlemen standing at the conservatory entrance?" Jiggs—"Why, they represent three generations. The ruddy old man with the fine head of hair, Buggs—the thin-haired one next to him is his son, and the dissipated fellow with the bald head is the grandson."—National Monthly.

Women love a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters is splendid for purifying the blood, clearing the skin, restoring digestion. All druggists sell it. Price $1.00.—Advertisement.

Tied by Prejudices.

The confirmed prejudices of a thoughtful life are as hard to change as the confirmed habits of an indolent life; and as some must trifle away age, because they trifled away youth, others must labor on in a maze of error, because they have wandered there too long to find their way out.—Bolingbroke.

Many People Don't Know.

A sluggish liver can cause a person an awful lot of misery. Spells of dizziness, headaches, constipation and biliousness are sure signs that your liver needs help. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and see how they help tone up the whole system. Fine for the stomach too. Aids digestion. Purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Only 25c, at your Druggist.—Advertisement.

Scrap Book Paste.

A simple and effective paste is made by covering the desired quantity of topioca with cold water, putting on the fire, and stirring. Add more water while it boils to make it of the consistency of paste. This can be used on wood, leather, paper, or rubber, and is especially good for scrap books and photographs.

"The House With a Reputation."

Must Go on Forever.

Time is like a river made up of the events which happen, and a violent stream; for as soon as a thing has been seen, it is carried away, and another comes in its place, and this will be carried away, too.—Marcus Aurelius.
